ABSTRACT

"All living things must perish " Life ,space ,nature ,universe is activated on simple theory-birth, exist and decay Among this, there is "happiness drowned in sorrow;" means the life's comfort could be experienced in this life which moves between birth and death.

These life's comforts are experienced by a special quality in nature life and space, which is difficult to explain or always remain as "unexplained " but This is experienced by beholders one who awaiting for and search it. This "unexplained" quality has a power to reveal the unfold world. So This is a journey to explore this unexplained quality to reveal the nature, the life, the space, the art, the architecture... and buildings.
